COVID-19 has undoubtedly changed the way we live, conduct business and how we interact with others. It's a challenging time, and we're fortunate to be able to help so many of our customers and community members. In this edition of the SanCap Connector we feature our success with the Small Business Administration Paycheck Protection Program, give you a peek at our new Bridge Branch, introduce you to new team members and more. Enjoy!

The Bridge Branch is Open for Business!

On July 1st we officially opened our new Bridge Branch! Our newest office is located at 9311 College Parkway, on the corner of College Parkway and McGregor Boulevard. This office marks our sixth location off Sanibel Island in Lee County. To learn more and see photos of our new home click here-

In Times of Crisis, We Step Up

 PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM 	The Small Business Administration Paycheck Protection Program (SBA PPP), was launched to address economic challenges caused by COVID-19 and provide forgivable, government-guaranteed loans for small businesses – the lifeblood of our community. We're proud to have secured over 750 PPP loans totaling almost $70 million dollars for Southwest Florida businesses, independent contractors and nonprofit organizations. What They're Saying About Us

Since March our efforts in successfully securing Small Business Administration Paycheck Protection Program loans for customers – and in some cases non-customers – caught the attention of both the media and community. Here are a few stories we'd like to share with you.

WINK Reporter, Sydney Persing did a great story on how we helped Tony Pezza, a Collier County business owner (and a non-customer) whose bank capped out of SBA PPP loan funds leaving him unsure where to go for help. To view the full story click here.
