In the last few months we've all started to adjust to the "new normal" with social distancing, face coverings and health checks now a routine part of daily life. At SanCap Bank we've adapted to these changes so we can maintain the exceptional service you've come to expect from us. Despite the challenges of 2020 we continue to thrive, grow and serve the community we all love. We hope you enjoying learning more about some of our 3rd quarter highlights.

Building Our Future

The future home of our new main office at 2406 Periwinkle Way on Sanibel continues to make progress. Renovations are well-underway and the building is expected to be completed by early 2021.
