In September Downtown Office Manager Kristin Dilorio attended Evangelical Christian School's Community Helper Day to talk to 2nd graders about how banks help the community.

THANKSGIVING FOOD DRIVE

Drop-off: October 12th-31st, 2023 at SanCap's Bridge Branch COMMUNITY BANK

FISH OF SANCAP is putting together 100 baskets for our Thanksgiving event, which will benefit anyone who lives or works on Sanibel or Captiva. The basket will consist of a portion of fresh produce and a portion of nonperishable goods, as well as a gift card (for a choice of fresh produce).

FISH needs assistance with these items:

- rice
- canned corn
- canned green beans
- canned or packaged beans (black, pinto, etc.)
- canned protein (tuna, chicken)
- canned/jarred gravy
- cranberry sauce
- any kind of stuffing
- canned fruit

Any other nonperishables will can be accepted and added to our Food Pantry.

We're collecting nonperishable food for F.I.S.H of SanCap's Thanksgiving Food Drive. If you'd like to donate bring items to any of our locations until October 31st. Thank you for helping us help F.I.S.H!
